

DAVID L. SPAUR, DIRECTOR OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

CERTIFIED ECONOMIC DEVELOPER & ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT FINANCE PROFESSIONAL

David L. Spaur has thirty years of economic development experience, inclusive of private sector, non-profit, and public sector organizations. A graduate of CSU, Chico, he has worked throughout California and taught economic development courses for Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, and several national and state organizations. As a business recruiter, he has recruited Fortune 500 companies ranging from Apple Computer and Intel to Western Electric, resulting in over $5 Billion in new investment and thousands of jobs. He currently resides in Carmel By-the-Sea and is active in racing sailboats, sports cars, golf serving on the Stillwater Club and supporting the Point Lobes Foundation.