

2017 Webinar Wednesday Professional Development Schedule

January 4, 2017

The Gig Economy

What developers can do to make sure the gig economy works for their local economy.

February 1, 2017

CALED's Legislative Update

Learn about the legislation impacting economic development.

March 1, 2017

The Ins and Outs of District Financing

Learn how to access financing for municipalities and jurisdictions for public improvements and services.

April 5, 2017

Business Financing Tools

Join CEDA and our partners as they discuss the latest trends in financing programs from which your businesses and communities can benefit.

May 3, 2017

Financing to Revitalize Urban InFill Properties

This webinar will present case studies that successfully used grants to fund revitalization efforts for urban infill projects.

June 7, 2017

Best of the Conference

After CALED's 37th Annual Conference Moving Forward, join us for an encore presentation of the highest rated breakout session.

July 5, 2017

Update from GO-Biz

Join the Governor's Office of Business and Economic Development as they discuss programs and tools to assist your community.

August 2, 2017

Worker Cooperatives and Ownership

Learn how employee-owned companies can help strengthen your community.

September 6, 2017

Legislative Update: Environment Legal Issue

This webinar will review new and proposed environmental statutes and trends that affect economic development efforts.

October 4, 2017

Tools and Tactics for Business Retention and Expansion

Listen to our expert speakers as they discuss innovative strategies to strengthen your BRE program.

November 1, 2017

Attracting Talent!

Our experienced speakers will discuss the top practices to secure and retain a skilled workforce.

December 6, 2017

Tech Tools for Economic Development

Technology is here to stay, learn how to use different platforms to promote and attract businesses to your community.

Thank you to the following sponsors:

Pacific Gas & Electric (PG&E)–Series Sponsor

Fresno State University, OCED–Technology Sponsor