CALED AND BUSINESS FACILITIES: A POWERFUL PARTNERSHIP

Reach more than 60,000* corporate executives with active relocation, expansion, or consolidation plans.

The 2020 CALED Member Directory will be a stand-alone guide inserted into the September/October 2020 issue of Business Facilities

Business Facilities provides the most effective way to reach corporate site selectors every step of the way as they research potential locations for their relocation, expansion or consolidation projects. Business Facilities' integrated marketing packages should be the foundation of your advertising program, and are the best way to create the community recognition and leads you need to maximize your marketing ROI. Nothing works better than a combination of print, online, and in-person marketing to help corporate executives identify your community as the solution to their location search.

Promote Your California Location With Our Integrated Marketing Solutions

Through print and digital issues of Business Facilities magazine, online at BusinessFacilities.com and via email with Business Facilities' eNewsletters, Business Facilities provides the information and economic development contacts that busy executives need, giving you the opportunity to build awareness and branding of your California location.

BUSINESS FACILITIES

LIVE X CHANGE®

NETWORK · LEARN · FIND NEW LOCATIONS FOR YOUR BUSINESS

Business Facilities LiveXchange gives you the opportunity to meet face-to-face with corporate site selectors and consultants who are identifying new locations for their expansion or relocation projects.

As a Business Facilities LiveXchange sponsor, you will meet one-on-one with delegates who are focused on their projects and anxious to discuss your California location and the benefits you offer. We require each delegate to present their project plans to us, interview scores of our subscribers, and accept only decision makers with active or ongoing site selection projects. Your sponsorship package includes accommodations, meals, and promotional collateral.

*Distribution consists of 40,000 subscribers to Business Facilities magazine and more than 20,000 Business Facilities digital edition recipients.

Check out the special packages Business Facilities is offering CALED members, and make the most of your marketing budget!
