San Joaquin County Employment Opportunity

Deputy Director—Employment & Training
Employment and Economic Development Department

The Position

The Deputy Director—Employment and Training is a single-position, at-will class that is exempt from the San Joaquin County Civil Service system. The incumbent is primarily responsible for planning, leading, developing, managing, and administering a variety of employment, training and economic development programs and assisting the Director in the overall management and administration of the department. The incumbent may act in the absence of the Director.

This position assists in operating and administering programs under the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) and Workforce Investment Act (WIA) federal regulations, while actively seeking to develop resources within a challenging economic environment. The incumbent will be charged with coordinating and negotiating partnership agreements with WIOA Mandated Partners, including making presentations to boards, commissions, business groups and the public.

The Deputy Director is expected to model a strong work ethic and leadership skills, including accountability for oneself and others, and to help ensure that all assigned programs and operations are in compliance with state, federal, and local requirements, regulations, and policies.

The Department

The Employment and Economic Development Department (EEDD) provides employment training, education, and economic development services throughout San Joaquin County. It serves as staff to the Workforce Development Board (WDB), San Joaquin County Economic Development Association (EDA), and the Revolving Loan Fund (RLF). Employment and training services for the California Work Opportunity and Responsibility to Kids Act (CalWORKs) Program is also provided under a cooperative agreement with the Human Services Agency. Once a jurisdiction has received designation as a Local Workforce Development Area (LWDA), levels of service must conform to standards established by law. EEDD is the designated administrative entity and is responsible for managing these functions and ensuring compliance with federal and state program guidelines.

The 2021-22 department budget totals approximately $19.7 million with 71 allocated positions.

Make San Joaquin County your new home!

A land of beauty, recreation and natural riches—from the waters of the Delta to the vines of the wine, San Joaquin County has it all. San Joaquin County boasts seven cities and some of the finest opportunities in the state for boating, fishing, camping, history gathering, or just plain fun in the sun. Each city, as well as the unincorporated county areas, offers a unique opportunity to enjoy California nature, music, arts and culture. Whatever your interest, it can most likely be found in San Joaquin County.

Arts, Culture & Recreation

An abundance of activities and events provide a much-needed respite from everyday worries and the Haggin Museum, San Joaquin County Historical Museum, and Stockton Children's Museum are popular spots.

The Bob Hope Theatre, Hutchins Street Square, and the Grand Theater provide cultural and entertainment experiences for children and adults. Sports venues include the Stockton Arena and Banner Island Ballpark for basketball, hockey, baseball, and other sports events. Enjoy college athletics at University of the Pacific and San Joaquin Delta College.

Stockton, the county seat, is the most racially diverse large city in the United States. Over 75 languages are spoken within the region and there is a constant celebration of cultures found in the numerous festivals that invite all community members to share food, music, dance, folklore, customs and traditions.

San Joaquin County operates nine community parks for boating, camping, and picnicking, swimming and organized sports.

Individual cities and communities provide a host of other opportunities, from Lodi Lake Park and Nature Area to the Woodbridge Ecological Reserve. The County-owned and operated Micke Grove Park offers a zoo, rides and a historical museum to delight both children and adults. The San Joaquin Delta offers some of the best boating in the state: more than 1,000 miles of waterways stretch from the Stockton Marina to north of Sacramento and offers access to the San Francisco Bay.

Education

From preschool to higher education, the County has it covered with an abundant array of public and private opportunities to learn and grow. The University of the Pacific, California State University, Stanislaus-Stockton Center, Humphreys College and Law School, National University, and San Joaquin Delta College offer a wide variety of choices for educational opportunities. The County’s 14 school districts provide families with a wide choice for children's educational development.

Agriculture

The county is one of the most agriculturally rich regions in California. The Lodi Appellation produces some of the finest wines and wine grapes in the world. Over 85 wineries offer opportunities for tasting and special events.

Almonds are the leading commodity, with 87,300 bearing acres. Grapes, milk, walnuts and eggs round out the top commodities, with an abundance of other produce. Weekly farmers markets throughout the county offer a cornucopia of fresh fruit and vegetables. Fruit stands and pick-your-own produce farms dot the countryside.

Housing

Housing is plentiful in San Joaquin County and is affordable when compared to other nearby areas.

Housing ranges from new developments to historic homes found mostly in central Stockton and downtown Lodi. San Joaquin County is a place where families can grow, learn, and experience the nature and beauty of the California landscape while benefiting from the unique opportunities - cultural, recreational, and educational - provided.
