

Hazel L. Wetherford

Deputy City Manager – City of Dublin, CA

Hazel Wetherford is currently the Deputy City Manager for the City of Dublin. As the Deputy City Manager, she manages the Office of Economic Development, overseeing the implementation of goals, objectives, priorities, policies, and major economic and financial initiatives. In this role, she guides departments in achieving these aims and oversees the City Council's strategic priorities related to the Downtown Dublin Preferred Vision and the Fallon Road Economic Development Zone.

Ms. Wetherford has more than 20 years of experience in local government serving in a range of roles. She started her career working at the California State Legislature and then the City of Brentwood before joining the City of Dublin. She holds a master's degree in public administration from the University of San Francisco, and a bachelor's degree from the University of California, Davis. Hazel grounds herself by being very active in her profession. She serves as the President of Cal-ICMA, a Board Member of the Local Government Hispanic Network, Vice Chair of the Urban Land Institute's Technical Assistance for Communities, and a member of the CalCities Diversity/Inclusion committee. She has also served as President of the Municipal Management Association of Northern California.

###